The story of The Humans has been over the Internet for a few days now, and I thought it was finally time to write a review. So, without further ado, let's jump right in. The plot: Our protagonist, Sil, is a university student who is dragged into the supernatural underground world when he accidentally summons a powerful enemy and has to decide if he's going to turn over a new leaf or not. He gets into a "tangled" relationship with his roommate, Miyu, a werewolf. Sil, much to his surprise, realizes that most of the world's inhabitants are secretly pretending to be supernatural beings.
