You are a male/female mechanic. You are in need of a decent jeep. You have to buy it and then maintain it with your skills to earn money. But it's not that easy. You also have to repair cars. As a mechanic, all you know is working on vehicles. You also have to interact with other people, if not always friendly. It can be challenging, but it's a rewarding game. 2 Reviews 5 Great game, November 12, 2018 Vincent Van Edwards I loved playing this game it was like driving your own jeep. The best thing is that you can do it all from your own home. You don't need to go on vacation to experience what it's like to drive this jeep. I thought I'd need to practice but the game feels great. The car repairs are actually pretty easy even if you're a noob. I think this game deserves to be the best and it does. I give this game 10/10. 5 Challenge yourself! November 11, 2018 Sandalio Cruz It's a simulator so there's not much to do, but if you like this kind of game, it's a good simulator. You won't be bored for a second here. You've got to build up your business, you can play with your friends and even download mods to spice up the game. Be careful though, some people tend to cheat. 4 Awesome! November 10, 2018 Gilles Delagrangre Great! You have to manage your own car, which is not easy by the way, but also repair other people's cars. You're a mechanic and your challenge is to organize your cash to buy new cars and repair the old ones. We're not suggesting you to try to buy new cars by hand though, this is a simulation game and you'll save tons of cash if you plan ahead. It's pretty nice to have a driving simulator now and then, especially if you like driving. Pros: + It's very accurate, there are rarely issues with physics, it's true to reality. + The scenery is nice, really realistic. + There's lots of cars for you to drive. + You're a mechanic, so it's an interesting job. + You can buy new cars by playing. + You can get cash through contracts. d41b202975

www.TorontoStarReprints.com Jerome Tham beats Charlie St. Clair to save QEW drag strip from demolition
By Peter Edwards The Canadian Press Fri., Oct. 19, 2008
WINNIPEG—Randy Soder, the owner of one of Manitoba's top drag strips, made a frantic phone call the day before a bulldozer was due to arrive. Soder had learned through his lawyer that a demolition crew was scheduled to clear his dragstrip outside St. Francois Xavier, Man., on Sunday. He was stunned, he said, to learn it would be the last weekend of drag racing at the establishment, as he closed it down in August after the second time it was used as an illegal drag strip. "It took us a year to save it, and I think (an inspector) finally took pity on us and told us we could use it," he said, recalling that he began thinking about what to do after his lawyer showed him the inspector's letter. "There was always a possibility it could close if the landlord couldn't take care of it. So I contacted the lawyer, and he put in a request to stop the work. And the company didn't comply, and the day before they were going to come in, the lawyer called me again." On Friday, the Hennepin County, Minn., court ruled that Winnipeg's QEW Quaintance Junior Dragway was seized at the time of its sale to Jerry Tham, and that the property is now his to operate as he sees fit. After a last-ditch effort to convince his landlord to get an injunction that would have allowed him to reopen, Soder was ecstatic. Article Continued Below "I can't put into words what this means to me," he said. "It means everything to me. I've been here 30 years, and this is the first time
