This game is "designed for 4 players in a single campaign". This game takes place in West Virginia during the Spring of 1861. The Confederate army is besieging the State capital of Kentucky in order to force the Union to allow a secession of the new State of West Virginia. The Union forces, lead by Irvin McDowell, are besieging the Confederate forces of West Virginia for the same reason. These two sides cannot be played against each other but both will be in the field at the same time: The Confederate forces are lead by General Robert E. Lee on the hot and humid and rugged mountaineous area of West Virginia. The Union forces are lead by Irvin McDowell in the fertile valleys, rivers, forests and towns of eastern West Virginia. The Union army of Irvin McDowell is numerous compared to the Confederate armies but also made of newcomers that had to be "trained" in the use of the rifles, artillery and transport service. The Confederate army of General Robert E. Lee has practiced and trained for years together since the secession of the state of Virginia and was better prepared, especially when not having to fight very good U.S. Army units. The Union and Confederate sides have the same range of troop's abilities to perform within the timeframe of the game, however the Confederate side being more numerous and better trained will most likely have an advantage. The Union forces will have the ability to deploy and rotate troops through their base in the new created state of West Virginia while the Confederate side will need to withdraw them. Both sides will choose to reinforce their positions in order to face reinforcements of the other side but will also have to search for special forces to be sent out in order to achieve the mission objective. The Union forces will mainly consist of the U.S. army and the Unions men from the other 39 states, the Confederates forces are mainly units of the new state of West Virginia, and the Special forces include recon and cavalry, and all units will be led by generals. The U.S. Army is made up from regular soldiers all recruited locally, and include various units such as infantry, cavalry, artillery, supply, engineer and other services units. The Uniform troops will be equipped with the most current rifles, uniform and various battle equipment. The Unions gun crews are made of mostly foreigners that may include Chinese, Korean, and Jewish men. The Confederates will be equipped with the appropriate equipment including battle equipment and c9d1549cdd

Work in progress images: Reviews A few weeks ago (7/23/2018) I went to the dentist office, because I have been noticing a sharp pain in my mouth. The woman that saw me after me was very nice. However, after she finished with me, she said that I was going to need to come back in 1-2 months for another cleaning. But when I got home, I realized that after leaving the dentist, the pain in my mouth has increased slightly. I took a picture of this after I woke up this morning, and I noticed something a little bit odd. There seems to be a large amount of saliva that is still in my mouth. I also noticed that my gums are swollen. I haven't had any reason to call the dentist, because I know
