“No other game publisher or developer has this level of data,” said the game’s co-development lead, Adrian Tsai. “With FIFA 22, we can create a more authentic, natural and fluid feeling of movement than ever before.” AI development is strengthened by input from pundits, experienced professional football coaches, and top division club coaches. Also new in this year's game is a ‘Player Intelligence’ feature, which offers an alternative to human-controlled teammates. In FIFA 22, players can be directed to perform actions as well as make their own runs, leaving teammates free to go where they want to in the opposition’s half. Also new in this year's game is ‘The Next Level’, an exclusive mode which explores a different skill set in each team. Players can use FIFA Skills, custom-made Move Motion and dynamic stadiums to unlock new ways to manipulate the ball. Watch the trailer below and visit the FIFA 20 Reveal website to read more. Hello! Fifa 22 Features Key:

- Custom kits - Your football club is completely customizable with custom kits and team emblems. Personalize your player look and feel, from head-to-toe, just the way you want.
- Create your own club - Create or manage the newest club in FIFA, assemble a squad of 22 of the world’s greatest players, design your stadium, and rule a league of online friends. Become the manager of your favorite club by making a real impact on the pitch and in your community.

- Survive your first match – FIFA 22 gives you a different experience from your first training session to the final whistle as you face-off with a fierce opponent. The new Tactical Defending System gives you the tools you need to block every shot, intercept every pass, and earn an extra point for every goal you prevent – and defend in style.
 - Real-time actions – FIFA 22 uses real-time physics and animations to affect gameplay. As you take on opponents, the ball will change direction like it would in a real match. Defending is easier than ever because your players move like they're part of the action. FIFA 22 introduces new passing and dribbling controls that allow you to change direction while running, or combine with creative and flicks to weave in between defenders.
 - Your influences – The world's greatest players will feature in FIFA 22. Including the likes of Lionel Messi, Cristiano Ronaldo, Zlatan Ibrahimovic, Neymar Jr, and many more. Look out for your own player lookalikes from the same illustrious group in your Ultimate Team.
 - The improved FIFA engine - FIFA's gameplay has not only been enhanced, but also has been completely rebuilt using an all-new engine. This allows developers to build on the game's engine and create new features that will push the level of play even further. The development team has completely altered the way players run, jump, move, and shoot and it shows with a huge increase in the impact of player collisions, its new dribble system, and improved ball physics.
