With Afghanistan, India and South Africa having already qualified for the eight-team tournament, the only realistic spot left for Sri Lanka to qualify is via the qualifier in the UAE. Sri Lanka had started to have a slight wobble towards the end of their two-match ODI series against Australia. However, an excellent first-innings declaration from captain Angelo Mathews and an unbeaten 98 by Dinesh Chandimal on the second day put Sri Lanka on track for qualification. Sri Lanka's qualification comes at a time when their Test team is in transition with senior players like Sanath Jayasuriya, Mahela Jayawardene, Kumar Sangakkara and Nuwan Kulasekara all retiring. The 28-year-old Mathews, who led the side to the ODI World Cup in 2015, will now lead Sri Lanka in both Tests and ODIs - the first time a Sri Lankan captain has led the team in both forms of cricket. © ESPNcricinfo Ltd Sri Lanka now have to beat Pakistan in a two-match ODI series to qualify for the World T20, which will be the first time Sri Lanka will play a T20I. They will play two T20Is in the UAE before the World T20. Sri Lanka, with two T20Is and one ODI against Pakistan, will be playing an ODI twice on all three venues where Pakistan will play. Mathews and Sri Lanka now have a busy year ahead of them and will try to qualify for the ICC's T20 World Cup in Australia in 2020. It's the first time since 2012 that Sri
